SECTION:	4003	POLICY NAME:	Student Rights & Responsibilities
ACCJC Standard/Policy:
As the pivotal members of the campus community, students shall receive the consideration and respect they deserve as individuals and citizens. Northern Marianas College (NMC) honors and protects the rights of each student. These rights include freedom of expression, including peaceable assembly, peaceable picketing, dissemination of literature on campus, political ads, and access to the policies, procedures, rules, and regulations of NMC, and the right of petition for the waiving of such rules and regulations, for change of administrative officer's finding or verdict, or for a hearing related to alleged dispute with an instructor or staff member. In addition, NMC recognizes that a student enrolled at the College must assume certain responsibilities. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The exercise of student rights imposes a responsibility for the recognition and acceptance of the rights and privileges of fellow students and other members of the campus community. 2. The student is expected to know and observe the policies, procedures, rules, and regulations of NMC. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action.
